ORDER:

The Government direct that the Diplomas awarded by the Technological Diploma Examination Board, Madras be recognised for purposes of appointment to posts under the control of the various Departments which require qualification in the appropriate branch of Engineering or Technology. The exact scope of this order is that where for the discharge of duties attached to a particular post, the possession of a Diploma in Engineering, is considered sufficient to Diploma awarded by the Technological Diploma Examination Board, Madras in the corresponding course of technology should be ~~considered~~ recognised as sufficient academic qualification for that particular post. If a candidate possessing a Degree should also apply for a post for which a Diploma is considered a sufficient qualification, preference should of course be given to him as against a mere Diploma holder, other conditions being equal.
